

The Border Bidette.

VOL 7.

NOGALES, PIMA COUNTY, ARIZONA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1899.

No. 2

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Cattle buyers will do well to address Frank Smith, Arivechi, Sonora, Mexico.

Mr. Anthony Bray is registered at the Montezuma hotel from San Francisco.

Mr. Fred Becker was slightly under the weather Wednesday of this week but is himself again.

R. G. Denham came in on Tuesday morning from Kansas City and is at the popular Montezuma.

Last Saturday Mr. A. L. Pellegrin, the well-known assayer, returned from a business trip to Llano, Sonora.

Mr. Jose Pierson, Jr., came up from Cibola last Saturday evening and spent Sunday in Nogales. He returned to Cibola Monday.

Paymaster Jas. Lesser, of the Sonora railroad, came in Wednesday morning with his pay card and now the boys on the south end are happy.

Last Sunday John G. Mason, a former engineer on the N. M. & A. railroad, came up from La Colorado en route to Crittendon, on a visit to relatives.

Mr. Frank Martin, who for a long time has been employed in the railroad shops at Guaymas as a machinist, accompanied by his family, stopped over a day in Nogales this week on his way to El Paso, where he goes to accept a position.

J. S. Mann, the carpenter, who left Nogales several months ago to go to Louisiana on important business, returned last Monday morning and says he is glad to get back to the border city and means to stay here and help build the town up. We are glad to welcome Jack back to Nogales.

The iron suspension bridges being erected in Nogales, Sonora, by K. C. Lowell, the contractor, are first-class in every respect and a credit to any town and are another evidence of the push and progressiveness of the city officials who have in hand the affairs of our sister town across the border.

Mr. R. Zellner, Jr., representing the Zeller Piano Company of Los Angeles, California, is in Nogales in the interest of his popular firm of which he is a member. He has sold to the Nogales Athletic Club one of his up-to-date pianos and now the music-loving members of that popular club will have a chance to amuse themselves.

See the new double column ad on another page of Breen & Peck, the liverymen. This enterprising livery firm has been in business in Nogales a number of years and have by their honorable and upright business methods secured one of the best paying business in the city. When you are in need of anything in their line don't forget they will never give you the worst of it.

The Tempe Daily News of January 9 says: Will H. Randall, who has been spending a few weeks at this place, will return to Nogales tonight, being called there by important business matters that demand his personal attention. Mr. Randall came here for the benefit of his health and his improvement has so far surpassed his expectations that he will return at the earliest possible moment and permanently locate here.

Friday of last week Mrs. O. L. Lewis, wife of Professor Lewis, received a telegram announcing the death of her mother in Ohio. Mrs. Lewis made immediate preparations to go east to attend her mother's funeral, but on account of the sudden illness of one of her little children, she was unable to depart. We join the entire community in extending sympathy to Prof. and Mrs. Lewis in their sudden and sad loss.

Lieutenant Alfred Hampton, accompanied by Mrs. Hampton, arrived in Nogales last Sunday. They came direct from Lieutenant Hampton's old home in South Carolina, where they visited a month with General Wade Hampton, the lieutenant's father. Lieutenant Hampton looks well and hearty and is none the worse for his experience in Cuba where he went with the army of invasion as a member of Gen. Butler's staff. Lieutenant and Mrs. Hampton have hundreds of friends and acquaintances in Nogales who join THE BIDETTE in extending to them a hearty welcome on their return to our city where they will reside permanently. Lieutenant Hampton having resumed his position with the United States customs service at this port, which he resigned to go the war.

City Council.

The council met in regular monthly session Monday evening, January 2nd, 1899.

Present, Mayor W. F. Overton, Councilmen George B. Marsh, Ramon Vasquez and W. F. Schoonmaker, and City Clerk F. J. Duffy.

Proposition of C. J. Wimple with reference to purchasing fire extinguishers was presented and laid over for future consideration.

Councilmen Vasquez and Schoonmaker were appointed a committee of two to confer with the fire department in regard to securing and fixing a room for the council in the engine house of the department.

It was ordered that occupants of land on the flat pay their rent or move at once.

The following demands were audited and ordered paid:

J. A. Linder, street work, $17.50; Jas. Butler, street work, $8; T. J. Harrison, street work, $12; T. F. Brodick, street work, $15; T. F. Brodick, expense in burying indigent dead, $4.50; John Dessart, hauling & loads of dirt, $10; Electric Light Company, lights, $7.50; Theo. Gebler, tools, etc., $1.80; Theo. Gebler, two month's rent, $30; J. W. Roberts, one month's salary and feed of mule, $22; J. H. Pomeroy, blacksmith, $3; Electric Light Co., lights, $7.31; T. J. Wylie, fare of indigent to Tucson, $6. Council then adjourned.

Discontented Tribes Are Seeking a Location in Mexico.

Last spring a delegation of Choctaw and Delaware Indians paid a visit to El Paso to examine a large tract of land situated about fifty miles below this city on the opposite side of the river and owned by Captain Charles Davis and others.

The Indians failed to close the deal with the owner of the property although they asserted that the tribes they represented were anxious to emigrate to Mexico on account of the abolishment of their tribal relations by the United States.

It now appears that the Indians are still looking for a favorable location in Mexico. A recent dispatch to the Globe Democrat from Mexico City says:

A delegation of Delaware Indians from Indian Territory have recently been making a trip through the agricultural districts of the state of Sonora. They visited the cities of Hermosillo and Guaymas and went from the latter place to the Yaqui River country to inspect the lands which they contemplate purchasing.

During their stay at Guaymas they were recipients of numerous attentions and shown various points of interest by the municipal authorities.

It is said they are well pleased with the country, and the deal which they are now negotiating will probably be consummated. It is proposed to establish a large colony of the members of their tribe on the acquired land.—El Paso Herald.

Important Cases Decided.

Judgment was rendered in the district court by Judge Davis Saturday in the cases commonly called county cases instituted by ex-District Attorney Satterlyite to recover monies said to be illegally paid by the board of supervisors of Pima county. In the case of Pima county vs. Grant A. Avery, M. G. Samaniego, Jas. Finley, and Jos. B. Scott was involved the right of the sheriff to receive compensation for taking care of U. S. prisoners. The facts in brief in this case were proved to be that the department of justice of the U. S. entered into a contract with the board of supervisors of Pima county for the feeling, guarding, caring for, and all other expenses were wholly paid by Pima county. The sheriff had received part of the monies paid by the United States under this contract with the board of supervisors and claiming that such amount was due him for caring for such U. S. prisoners. The court held that it is the duty of the sheriff under the statutes of Arizona to take charge of and keep the county jail and prisoners therein, and he is not entitled to any extra compensation therefor. The judgment was entered in the case against each defendant for the sum of $1,078.42.

The same questions of law and fact were involved in the case wherein Sheriff Leatherwood had received monies for caring for U. S. prisoners, and judgment was entered in favor of the county in that case for $945.57.

The case of Pima county vs. C. F. Schumacher, M. G. Samaniego, Thos. Q. Bullock and Chas. F. Weber was brought to recover the amount of the demand of ex-Probate Judge Wood for salary for the 4th quarter of 1898. The evidence showed that for many years Judge Wood had neglected to keep a register of actions or fee book or to pay into the county treasury the fees collected by him. Mr. Chas. Bowman was employed by the board of supervisors as an expert to go over papers in the probate court and to ascertain as nearly as possible how much was due to the county by Judge Wood. He filed his report showing a large indebtedness and so testified at the trial of the case. The demand of Judge Wood had been assigned to defendant Chas. F. Weber. The court held that the board of supervisors acted unlawfully in allowing this demand of Judge Wood and that he was also indebted to the county in a sum greater than the amount of the warrant, and rendered judgment against Chas. F. Weber, and each of the other defendants in the sum of $394. Other cases for the recovery of fees claimed to have been illegally paid are still pending.—Tucson Citizen.

HAS A HISTORY.

A Momento of Apache Kid Recalls History.

It is nearly ten years since Sheriff Glenn Reynolds and Deputy Holmes of this county were killed four miles west of Riverside by the Apache Kid and six other Indians they were taking to the territorial prison, says the Florence Tribune. Eugene Middleton, who was driving the stage, was desperately wounded and left for dead. It was a bloody chapter of Arizona history, and it was vividly recalled last Tuesday by the discovery of a pair of handcuffs and leg irons lying eaten with rust about one hundred yards west of the scene of butchery.

The irons which have just been found were without doubt those which played an important part in the bloody affair. Middleton is now a prominent business man of Globe, and the Kid, who never afterwards was apprehended, proved to be the terror of southeastern Arizona for many years, many murders being laid at his door.

TERRITORIAL MINING NOTES.

From the Mining Review.

It is reported that gold in small quantities has been found in the big wash at Chloride.

The Mammoth is making $250 a day from the fifty-stamp mill, work, and royalty on crushing.

J. H. Pascoe's assessment work on the Pascoe claims near the Black Warrior resulted in striking some rich copper ore.

The King of Arizona Company will drill 2,000 feet for water. They are down 550 feet now. Thirty men are at work on the King.

The Black Warrior Company resumed work on the Diamond H. shaft and the Montgomery tunnel. They now have fifteen men at work.

Thomas McNeely sold a carload of ore to the Kingman sampling works this week, which was taken from the Argo mine on the west side of Sherum Peak.

G. W. Bibbons, superintendent of the Dos Cabezas mine, is getting his mill in running condition. The mine is a gold producer and shows indications of richness.

W. A. L. Tarr, while doing assessment work on the north extension of the Cerbat mine, of which he is the owner, opened up a body of ore assaying nine and one-half ounces gold to the ton.—Minor.

Work on the mill at the Spenazuma mine has been postponed until February, but development work will be pushed in the mean time. An immense ledge of high-grade ore has been uncovered with the last week.

Two Prescott men, whose names we have not learned, have struck a big body of ore in a claim near the Cupel, on Stockton Hill. The ore is said to resemble the rich ore taken from the Tigris ledge many years ago.

Intense interest is being taken in the mammoth copper, gold and silver deposits on the Gun Creek, twenty miles east of Payson. The ledges are from fifty to seventy-five feet in width, and capped with iron. Copper is the most predominant value of the ore.

Superintendent H. K. McDonald of the Grand Cañon copper mines says the railroad from Williams to the cañon will be completed by April 1 next, and that his company will erect two holes at the head of Bright Angel trail, and at the Indian gardens in the cañon respectively.

An attachment suit has been filed by Joseph C. Perry, special administrator of the estate of John A. Gano, deceased, late of Cincinnati, Ohio, against the Atlas Mining Company of Chicago, and a levy has been made on their mines and millsites in the Silver Bell mining district. The sum sued for is $2,874.90.
